WANTED: I know it's a long shot bc they are on many people's wish lists in the Gourd Society, but I'm looking for a Ram Carver or similar. Besides learning and practicing my carving skills I was hired at Encore Creative Center in Meridian to teach art classes in June and the director there wants me to teach gourd carving as part of my art class offerings in the future maybe fall or winter semester. If you know of anyone that is upgrading and wants to sell an older version Im interested as my current employment circumstances doesn't allow me to purchase a new one yet.
