

GOURD IDENTIFICATION

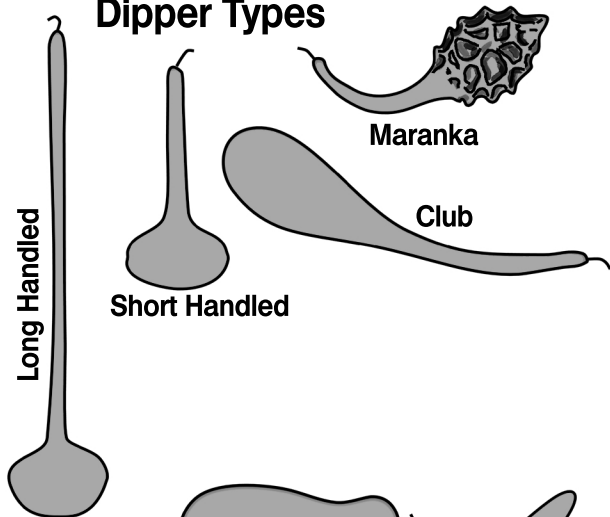

Basket Types

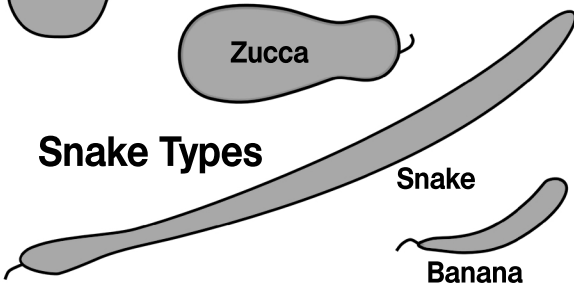

Bottle Types

Dipper Types

Snake Types

Are you a gourder?

As an Idaho Gourd Society member you will be entitled to participate and receive benefits:

Receive IDGS newsletters

Attend regular meetings, patches & workshops

Learn where to source crafting & growing supplies

Exchange ideas with other gourders

Participate in various public projects

Display your gourds in group displays at local libraries & community centers

Participate in seed swaps

Receive instructions & tips on gourd growing as well as safety precautions used for gourd crafting

IDAHO GOURD SOCIETY MISSION STATEMENT

The purpose of the IDGS is to unify and support gourd artists, crafters and growers and promote gourd appreciation.

IDGS Brochure, revised 7-11-2024

IDAHO GOURD SOCIETY

Meetings & workshops are on the second Saturday each month*.

idahogourdsociety.org

*Check the website for current meeting information.